

We strongly oppose the weakening of Indiana's law. We do not wish our email or phones to become tools of intrusion into the privacy of our homes. Junk mail does not disrupt our lives. Junk email and junk phone calls are very intrusive and we greatly resent those who use those methods. We were so relieved when the FCC offered the options to guard our privacy.